Roadbook

The tour starts directly at Hotel DAS TEGERNSEE. After just a few minutes, you reach the lakeside promenade in Tegernsee and follow the well-maintained cycle path along the shore.

Passing through Rottach-Egern, the route takes you past elegant villas, charming boutiques and inviting cafés. Along the way, you can enjoy beautiful views of the lake and Wallberg, the distinctive landmark of the Tegernsee Valley.

The route continues along the western shore to Bad Wiessee. Known for its relaxed atmosphere and numerous access points to the water, the town offers several bathing spots and sunbathing areas, perfect for a refreshing break.

You then reach Gmund, where Lake Tegernsee flows into the Mangfall River. The spacious lakeside areas and nature reserve give this section of the route a particularly tranquil charm.

Following the eastern lakeside path, the tour eventually leads back towards Tegernsee. Along the way, breathtaking views across the entire lake open up before you return to Hotel DAS TEGERNSEE.
