Roadbook

The tour begins directly at Hotel DAS TEGERNSEE and initially follows the lakeshore towards Rottach-Egern.

From there, continue towards Sonnenmoos, where the main ascent begins at the Wallbergbahn valley station. Following well-maintained forest tracks, the route climbs steadily towards Wallberg. The ascent leads predominantly through shady mountain forests, with occasional open sections revealing beautiful views across the Tegernsee Valley. As you gain altitude, the climb becomes more demanding, with several steeper sections requiring a good level of fitness.

Higher up, an impressive panorama opens up across the peaks of the Mangfall Mountains and Lake Tegernsee. The highest point of the tour lies below the Wallberg summit and provides an ideal spot for a short break.

After a brief rest, the route continues towards Sitten. Scenic forest tracks lead through peaceful woodland and open alpine meadows, with magnificent panoramic views unfolding along the way. The well-maintained forest roads allow for a smooth and enjoyable ride, making this one of the most rewarding sections of the tour.

The route then continues along varied woodland trails and quiet roads back towards Rottach-Egern. From there, follow the lakeshore back to Hotel DAS TEGERNSEE.
